Cancellations and Refund

Some programmes and services offered by AtmaVid may require payment.

- All applicable fees will be communicated before registration.

- Payments must be made through the authorised payment methods provided by the Foundation.

- Registration will be confirmed upon successful receipt of payment.

- Once a participant has registered and paid for a programme, the fee is non-refundable, including in cases where the participant chooses not to attend or is unable to complete the programme.

- However, participants may request a transfer of their registration to the next upcoming programme of the same category, subject to availability and approval by the Foundation.

- Such transfer requests must be communicated to the Foundation before the commencement of the originally registered programme.

- Any transfer is subject to the programme schedule and other applicable participation requirements.

Nothing in this section shall limit any refund or other rights that cannot legally be excluded under applicable law.
